

The 3 O'Clock Wake Up Call Team

Marianne Kranker

A mountain top experience while attending a 3 O'clock Wake Up Call retreat changed my life. Now, with a new state to call home and a career focused on my strengths, talents and experience, I'm partnering with large and small organizations to strategically plan and execute conferences for 100 to 100,000 attendees. Thank you God!

I received a serious wake-up call about 5 years ago. At the height of my career as a Technology Business executive I should have been grateful for everything I had but instead I was struggling with my purpose and path! God nudged me (OK, He hit me over the head) to use my gifts, talents and strengths to serve and support the 3 O'clock Wake-up Call and start my own business helping young adults find their career and education paths.

After over eight years, I quit a job that I should have loved. One I worked so consistently hard for over those years. I was angry at the circumstances and mourned the loss but at the same time I knew it was part of God's plan. You see, I didn't quit without help; it took lots of prayer and a couple blatant signs from the Holy Spirit to have the confidence to leave. A few days after my last day, I overheard two moms on the sideline of my daughter's soccer game talking about a Bible study and I went up to them and said I happened to have time on my hands now and would love to come. That was the beginning of the journey of spiritual growth I'm on. The 3 O'Clock Wake Up Call opened my heart and all my senses to what I was missing in my life: a deeper relationship with Jesus and a focus on becoming more like Him. Now, I'm blessed to help The 3 O'Clock Wake Up Call connect with others so they too can experience a more resilient faith that provides hope and peace in all circumstances.
