

Dr. Michaelle Knight has 20 years of leadership experience; developing leaders at all levels within the corporate and non-profit sectors. Dr. Knight is the CEO & Founder of Knight Consulting, San Diego and the Legacy Institute of Excellence, LLC. As a Certified Life Coach she provides a safe space for clients to thrive. Leveraging her life experiences, education, various aspects of psychology, leadership psychology and empathy, she helps others realize their potential. Dr. Knight grew up in the church as a “preacher’s kid”, and currently serves as an active leader within her family’s ministry as a lifetime Minister of the Gospel; her life is a testament of faith and victory, spreading messages of hope to women in her local community and throughout the world. She is a master facilitator, teacher and mentor who shares her truth unapologetically. She is a voice for this generation.

Professionally, Dr. Knight develops and drives DEI cultural strategies. She is passionate about establishing cultural awareness and sensitivity to help individuals be advocates for themselves and others. Dr. Knight has also been recognized by the San Diego Business Journal as a Human Resources & Diversity Professional of the Year.

Dr. Knight is Adjunct Faculty for multiple universities using her influence to help leaders become self-aware and empowered through academic advancement. As an Advisory Board member for the University of California, Riverside for a Transformational Leadership Program, she also serves as an Executive Leadership Mentor.

Dr. Knight is held in high regard, creating space for inclusion through meaningful dialogue, ensuring all voices are heard, respected, and valued. This is her calling.